
Exercise 1: Employee Notebook Job

Notebook Name

`employee_loader`

Tasks

1. Create a notebook called `employee_loader`.
 2. Create employee data with `emp_id`, `name`, `department`, `salary`.
 3. Create a `DataFrame`.
 4. Display the `DataFrame`.
 5. Print "Employee Load Completed".
 6. Save the notebook.
 7. Create a Job called Employee Daily Load.
 8. Add `employee_loader` notebook as a task.
 9. Run the job manually.
 10. View the execution logs.
-

Exercise 2: Scheduled Product Pipeline

Notebook Name

`product_loader`

Tasks

1. Create product data.
 2. Create a DataFrame.
 3. Display products.
 4. Create a temp view.
 5. Calculate average product price using SQL.
 6. Display the results.
 7. Create a Job called Product Analytics.
 8. Attach the notebook.
 9. Schedule the job every hour.
 10. Verify job history.
-

Exercise 3: Multi-Notebook Workflow

Notebook 1

```
customer_loader
```

Notebook 2

```
customer_summary
```

Tasks

1. Create customer_loader notebook.

2. Create customer DataFrame.
 3. Save it as customer_table.
 4. Create customer_summary notebook.
 5. Read customer_table.
 6. Calculate customers by city.
 7. Create a Job.
 8. Add customer_loader as Task A.
 9. Add customer_summary as Task B.
 10. Make Task B dependent on Task A.
 11. Execute the workflow.
 12. Verify both tasks complete successfully.
-

Exercise 4: Scheduled Banking Report

Notebook

```
bank_report
```

Tasks

1. Create account data.
2. Calculate total balance by city.
3. Display the report.
4. Create a job named Daily Banking Report.
5. Schedule it to run daily.

6. Trigger Run Now.

7. View execution duration.

8. View logs.

9. Disable the schedule.

10. Re-enable the schedule.
